Attend for faith and fellowship

Ryan & Margaret Rogers:

Ryan, a Panama City native, and Margaret, from Wisconsin, met in Chicago while Ryan was earning his Master's in Divinity to be a Protestant pastor. Ryan and Margaret married in 2013 and moved to Panama City for Ryan's first job as a youth and preaching pastor for a local non-denominational church. After 5 years of ministry, Ryan and Margaret began discerning the fullness and beauty of the Catholic Church. After over two years of research and prayer, Ryan, Margaret, and their sons entered the Catholic Church at St. Dominic Panama City on April 22, 2017. Ryan is now earning his Master's in Clinical Counseling and working full-time as an addictions counselor. Margaret has a Master's in Clinical Counseling and works part-time as a counselor for children who have been sexually abused. She also serves St. Dominic as leader of the mom's group, an RCIA teacher, and an Alpha leader.

Ryan and Margaret Rogers have two sons, Isaac (almost 3) and Silas (18 months), and are expecting their first daughter in May.
